CERTIFICATION OF LOST LICENSE, PERMIT OR PLATES

Use this form to explain why you cannot turn in your driver license, learner permit, non-driver ID or license plates to DMV.

DMV may restore your license and/or registration after you serve a suspension or revocation period. When DMV receives this form, DMV will surrender the item(s) that you check below.

Instructions:

- Provide all the information requested below. Please print your name and mailing address exactly as they are printed on your driver license, learner permit or vehicle registration.
Check the box next to each of the items below that you cannot turn in to DMV.
In the "Explanation" section, explain why you cannot turn in the item(s) that you check below.
Sign your name in the "Customer's Signature" box, and return this form to any DMV office.
If you complete this form, you authorize DMV to surrender the item(s) that you check below (documents and/or license plates). If you find your suspended/revoked driver license, learner permit, non-driver ID and/or license plates after you give this form to DMV, you must immediately turn in the item(s) to a DMV office.
